- Active part of the Body of Christ
 - Rom 12:5-8 “For just as we have many members in one body and all the members do not have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. Since we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, each of us is to exercise them accordingly: if prophecy, according to the proportion of his faith; if service, in his serving; or he who teaches, in his teaching; or he who exhorts, in his exhortation; he who gives, with liberality; he who leads, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.”

Caring for Community

- Growth in leadership and teamwork
 - Luke 22:25-27 “And He said to them, ‘The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them; and those who have authority over them are called ‘Benefactors.’ But it is not this way with you, but the one who is the greatest among you must become like the youngest, and the leader like the servant. For who is greater, the one who reclines at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one who reclines at the table? But I am among you as the one who serves.’”
- Interact with honesty and integrity
 - Prov. 11:1-3 “A false balance is an abomination to the Lord, but a just weight is His delight. When pride comes, then comes dishonor, but with the humble is wisdom. The integrity of the upright will guide them, but the crookedness of the treacherous will destroy them.”

Statement of Faith

- We believe the Bible, the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments, to be the only infallible, inspired and authoritative Word of God (2 Timothy 3:16-17).
- We believe there is only one God, eternally existent in three persons: God the Father, Jesus Christ the Son, and the Holy Spirit (Deuteronomy 6:4; Matthew 28:19-20).
- We believe in the deity of our Lord Jesus Christ (John 1:1, 14; Colossians 2:9), in His virgin birth (Matthew 1:23), in His sinless life (2 Corinthians 5:21; Hebrews 4:15), in His miracles (John 2:11, 20:30-31), in His atoning death through His shed blood, (1 Corinthians 15:3; 1 John 2:2), in His bodily resurrection (Acts 2:32), in His ascension to the right hand of the Father (Luke 22:69), and in His personal return in power and glory (Matthew 16:27; Acts 1:11; Revelation 22:12).
- We believe that God created man, male and female, in His own image (Genesis 1:26-27; Matthew 19:4). It pleased God to create man as two distinct biological sexes, male and female, and each man bears the life-long responsibility of confessing and fulfilling God's law and purpose for the biological sex which God alone unalterably assigned him at the moment of conception (Deuteronomy 22:5; Psalm 139:13-16; 1 Corinthians 6:9-11).
- We believe that Adam and Eve's disobedience to God brought sin into the world (Genesis 3; Romans 5:14-21). Man, thus alienated himself from God, his neighbor, and the world (Isaiah 59:2; Colossians 1:21). All mankind except Jesus Christ are sinners, have sinned, and come short of the glory of God (Romans 3:9-20).
- We believe Jesus Christ is the only Savior of sinners, the only way to the Father (John 3:16, 14:6). Christ died as a substitute for sinners and was raised from the dead so that man could be reconciled to God (Romans 5:8; 2 Corinthians 5:21).
- We believe that eternal life is a gift of God received personally through faith alone in Jesus Christ alone (John 3:16; Acts 16:14). Eternal life is neither deserved by anyone nor can it be earned by good deeds (Ephesians 2:8-9).
- We believe that the Holy Spirit has come to glorify Christ and to apply the saving work of Christ to our hearts (John 3:3-8). He convicts us of sin and draws us to the Savior (1 Corinthians 2:11-14). Indwelling our hearts, He gives new life to us, empowers and imparts gifts to us for service (Romans 8:14). He instructs and guides us into all truth (John 16:13) and seals us for the day of redemption (Ephesians 4:30).

- We believe that the true Church is composed of all persons who, through saving faith in Jesus Christ and the sanctifying work of the Holy Spirit, are united together in the body of Christ (Romans 12:4-5; Ephesians 2:19-22). The Church finds her visible, yet imperfect, expression in local congregations where the Word of God is preached in its purity (2 Timothy 4:2); where the sacraments of Baptism (Acts 2:38; Matthew 28:19) and the Lord's Supper (1 Corinthians 11:23-26) are administered in their integrity; where scriptural discipline is practiced (Matthew 18:15-20; 1 Corinthians 5:1-5); and where loving fellowship is maintained (Acts 2:42).
- We believe that the term marriage has only one meaning: the uniting of one man and one woman in a single, exclusive union, as delineated in Scripture (Genesis 2:18-25). We believe that God intends sexual intimacy to occur only between a man and a woman who are married to each other (1 Corinthians 6:18; 7:2-5; Hebrews 13:4). We believe that God has commanded that no intimate sexual activity be engaged in outside of a marriage between a man and a woman.
- We believe that God has charged parents with the responsibility of bringing up their children in the "nurture and admonition of the Lord" (Ephesians 6:4). Christian schools can be of great assistance to the parents in this crucial task.

Biblical Lifestyle

The Bible prohibits specific behaviors and limits marriage to a covenant relationship between a man and a woman (Genesis 2:21-25; Ephesians 5:22-33). LCA will instruct students in these teachings. Behaviors prohibited in the Bible include, but are not limited to:

- The use of vulgar and profane language (Ephesians 4:29; 5:4; Colossians 3:8);
- Deceit: deliberately falsifying materials or misrepresenting facts by lying (Matthew 5:33-37);
- Theft: the act of stealing (Exodus 20:15, Ephesians 4:28);
- Drunkenness or the use of illicit drugs (Ephesians 5:18; Romans 13:13-14);
- Heterosexual activity outside of one-man-one-woman marriage. For example, premarital sex, cohabitation, or adultery (John 8:1-11; I Corinthians 6:9-20; Hebrews 13:4);
- Homosexual or bisexual activity or any form of sexual immorality (Romans 1:21-27; I Corinthians 6:9-20);
- Practicing alternate gender identity or any other identity or behavior that violates God's ordained distinctions between the two sexes, male and female (Genesis 1:26-27; Deuteronomy 22:5).
- Sexual harassment, use or viewing of pornographic material or websites (Psalm 101:2-3; Matthew 7:12; Ephesians 5:3);
- Sexual abuse or improprieties toward minors as defined by Scripture and federal or state law (Matthew 18:5-6; Luke 18:15);
- Any illegal activity (Romans 13:1-5).

In situations in which the home life violates these standards, LCA reserves the right, within its sole discretion, to refuse admission of an applicant or to discontinue enrollment of a student.

Philosophy of Education

The Lighthouse Christian Academy, Inc. (LCA) philosophy of education is based upon the biblical teaching that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom and knowledge. God, being the only Creator and Sustainer of the Universe, being the only Savior of men otherwise hopelessly lost in sin, and being infinite in contrast to the finite limitations of the human intellect, must be at the head and at the core of the educational process for that process to be valid. Since God has revealed Himself in the Incarnate Word (Jesus Christ the Eternal Son) and in the Written Word (the Bible), the knowledge of Jesus Christ and the Bible becomes the key and the coordinating principle of education that is Christian.

The ultimate goal of all education, according to 1 Corinthians 10:31, is to help man achieve life's purpose: to glorify God and to serve Him in every area of life. The Word of God is the explicit revelation of God and is the primary means by which we pursue the goal of education. In light of this fact, emphasis must be placed on learning and applying the Scriptures during the school day. Christian education should also encourage the student to develop attitudes and behaviors consistent with biblical principles, including the teaching of absolutes that are necessary for making decisions that affect one's relationship to God and interactions with others.

The training and education of children and youth is primarily the responsibility of parents (Deuteronomy 6:6-7; Psalm 78:1-7). LCA assists and supports parents in training up their children in the way they should go, so that when they are old they will not depart from it (Proverbs 22:6). LCA strongly encourages parents to be actively involved by being aware of the process, content, and progress of their children's education. Since the Bible gives primary responsibility to parents to bring up their children in the discipline and instruction of the Lord (Ephesians 6:4), LCA does not replace parents, but rather, acts in cooperation with them. Parents are biblically responsible for the Christian character and behavioral development of their children.

According to Psalm 24:1, all of creation and all its aspects belong to God. In Genesis 1:27-28, we are told that man is created in God's image and is given charge as a steward of this creation. Because of this, students are to be taught to understand the creation in all its aspects, not as an end in itself, but as a means to knowing and serving God. Hence, an effective education will expose them to the fullness of creation, help them develop fully in every part of their lives, and give them skills necessary to serve God as well as society. Since a true understanding of the world in which we live cannot be gained apart from knowledge of the Creator, all aspects of the curriculum should incorporate a distinctly Christian world and life view, taking into account God's revelation of Himself.

A primary portion of our service to God as outlined in Exodus 20:1-17 and Mark 12:30-31 is to center around loving our neighbors. To this end, a full education must include an emphasis on acquiring and understanding the tools for communication and learning. In addition, students should understand the history and state of the culture within which they will serve God through their dealings with their neighbors. A Christian education should lead to the development of a strong, Christ-like character and a lifestyle of service, displaying the fruit of the Spirit through living in the truth of God's Word and serving our neighbors and the broader society.

LCA takes seriously the responsibility to carefully choose teachers who will support the mission of the school by being exemplary in their craft and in their conduct. LCA is committed to supporting its faculty in carrying out the vision and mission of the school.

SUPPORTING STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES POLICY

LCA welcomes the opportunity to provide Christian education to students with documented disabilities. However, LCA does not have a formal or separate special needs program. We have limitations on the level of accommodations that can be reasonably supported by our school.

We will work with Christian parents of prospective students to assess what accommodations might be provided or supported by the school. We will also work with parents to see what additional resources can be provided by the local public-school district or by the parents.

Any proposed accommodations must be documented by proper written assessments from appropriate professional diagnosticians. The parents will be presented with a letter outlining what reasonable accommodations LCA would be able to provide or support.

Even with reasonable accommodations, LCA special needs students will be mainstreamed in a regular classroom setting and be expected to make demonstrated academic progress consistent with the child's cohort.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Lighthouse Christian Academy has been approved by the Department of Homeland Security to issue I-20's to International Students. Students must be accepted through the normal admissions process. In addition, they must take a language proficiency test. International students must have sufficient proficiency in English to succeed in LCA classes.
